

Lynn Intro A Children's Winter ✓✓

Dermot O'Reilly

Moderately

D A7 D D A

1. The win - ter snow is a child's de - light As it

5 D G A A7 D

bright - ens up the win - ter night And coats the earth in a

8 A A7 D A7 D D

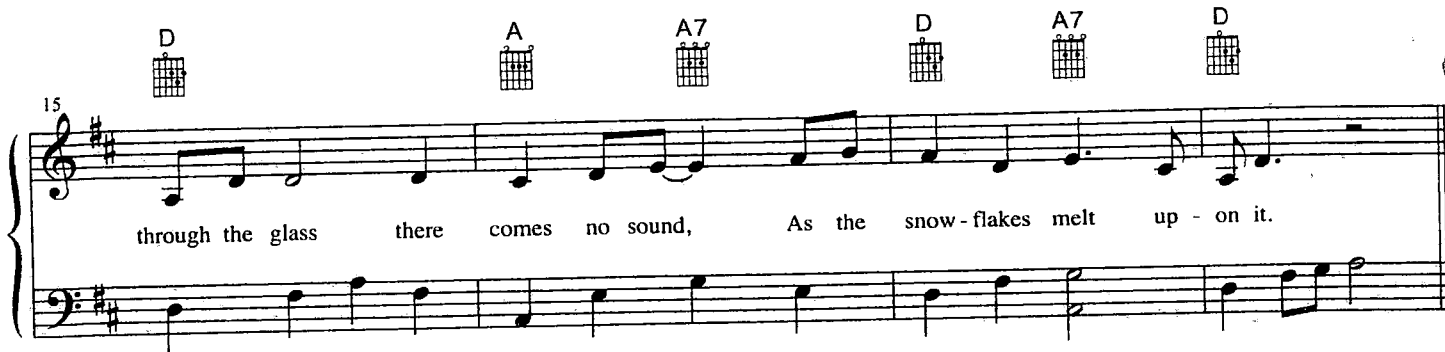

cheer - y white As it soft - ly drifts up - on it. 2. The smil - ing fac - es

12 A A7 D G A A7

watch the ground, As the snow is fal - ling all a - round; And 15

D A A7 D A7 D

through the glass there comes no sound, As the snow-flakes melt up - on it.

19

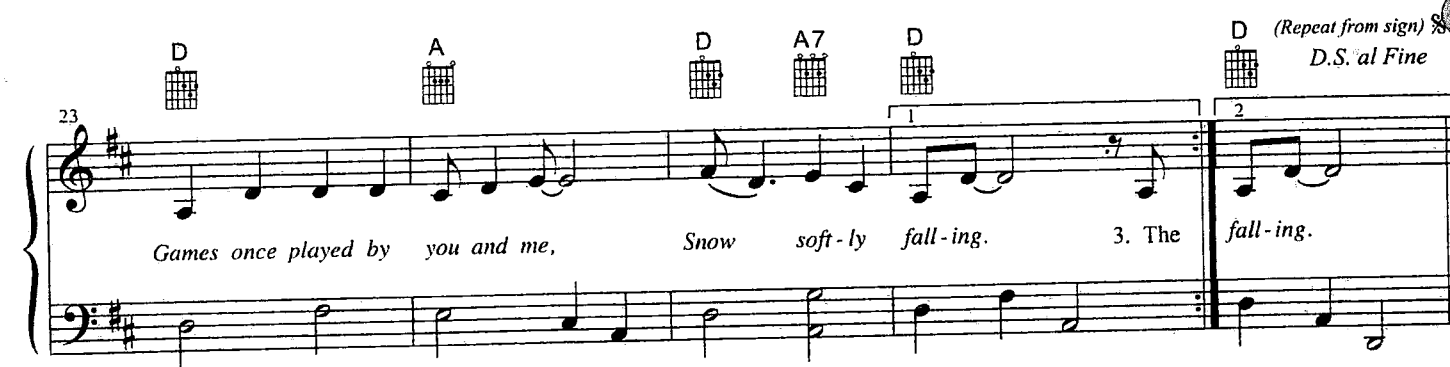

D D7 G Em A A7

Chorus: Snow man, snow house, hey, play with me. Shake the snow down from the tree;

23

D A D A7 D D (Repeat from sign) D.S. al Fine

Games once played by you and me, Snow soft-ly fall-ing. 3. The fall-ing.

1.
The winter snow is a child's delight,
As it brightens up the winter night;
And coats the earth in a cheery white,
As it softly drifts upon it.

2.
The smiling faces watch the ground,
As the snow is falling all around;
And through the glass there comes no sound,
As the snowflakes melt upon it.

Chorus:

*Snow man, snow house, hey, play with me,
Shake the snow down from the tree;
Games once played by you and me,
Snow, softly falling.*

3.
The morning comes and the children play,
Their laughter rings out through the day;
They hope the snow is here to stay,
And it won't be gone tomorrow.

4.
Sliding, running, down the hill,
The time for fun is now, but still;
As they climb up on life's long hill,
They're sure to meet some sorrow.

Chorus (twice)