Bob Merrill

Playing Notes: None.

"(How Much Is That) Doggie in the Window?" is a popular novelty song written by Bob Merrill in 1952. The best-known version of the song was recorded by Patti Page on December 18, 1952. The song's lyrics tell the story of a young woman who has to go on a trip to California, and wants to buy a dog for her sweetheart so that he will not be lonely, and so that any robbers will be scared away.

(How Much Is That) Doggie in the Window?

Chorus: How much is that doggie in the window? (arf! arf!)
The one with the waggley tail
How much is that doggie in the window? (arf! arf!)
I do hope that doggie's for sale

1. I must take a trip to California
And leave my poor sweetheart alone
If he has a dog, he won't be lonesome
And the doggie will have a good home
(Chorus)

2. I read in the paper there are robbers (roof! roof!)
With flashlights that shine in the dark
My love needs a doggie to protect him
And scare them away with one bark
(Chorus)

3. I don't want a bunny or a kitty
I don't want a parrot that talks
I don't want a bowl of little fishies
He can't take a goldfish for a walk
(Chorus - repeat last line)
