

A Fig For A Kiss

Ni Mait Liom Pog, Cailin Lasa Sal Roc, Gáire Na mBán, Gliogar an Mheadair, The Gurgling of the Churn, The Humours of Bottle Hill, Milk the Churn, The Night of the Fun [2], The Old Dutch Churn, She is fit for a kiss, Splashing of the Churn [2], Two in a Gig

The melody was printed in the Petrie Collection of Ancient Irish Music of Ireland (Dublin, 1855) under the title "Glugur an Mheadair," translated as "Gurgling/Splashing of the Churn." The "Fig for a Kiss" title was first used in print by O'Neill. Related Cape Breton versions can be found under the title "The Old Dutch Churn."

A Fig For A Kiss

Slip- or Hop-jig
AABB

trad. Irish - FF Version

1. 2.

5. 1. 2.

9. 2.

Playing Notes:

- none.